

PROCESS OPERATOR 2nd SHIFT

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Wafer FAB Operator

Department: Manufacturing Engineering

Status: Regular Full time Position/2nd Shift

Job Description Summary:

- Semiconductor Wafer Processing. Responsible for the basic processes of wafer production. Also, responsible for tracking the production queue & ensuring quality of final product.
- Performs equip. qualification, SPEC tests & material inspections of semiconductor components to documented requirements (e.g., work instructions, eng. Procedures, inspection criteria, etc.)
- Processes material and/or product as instructed.
- Prepares visual rejection forms for all items that do not meet specifications & maintain other required documentation.
- Updates computerized records.
- Completes equipment & quality assurance checklists.
- Semiconductor Wafer Processing. Responsible for the basic processes of wafer production. Also, responsible for tracking the production queue & ensuring quality of final product.
- Performs equip. qualification, SPEC tests & material inspections of semiconductor components to documented requirements (e.g., work instructions, eng. Procedures, inspection criteria, etc.)
- Processes material and/or product as instructed.
- Prepares visual rejection forms for all items that do not meet specifications & maintain other required documentation.
- Updates computerized records.
- Completes equipment & quality assurance checklists.

Job Requirements:

- ☐ High School or equivalent
- ☐ 2-5 years of related experience in a FAB
- ☐ Good communication skills
- ☐ Basic math
- ☐ Basic computer operating skills
- ☐ Familiar with standard concepts, practices & procedures within a particular field.